

Friday 14th June

Please note that from September the school will no longer allow nuts on the premises, thank you for your understanding.

Fermyn woods

Year 4 pupils endured rain and wind during their trips this week to Fermyn Woods. Despite the adverse weather, many bugs were spotted and identified and pond creatures were netted and released again. Thank you to parents for ensuring that their children were dressed appropriately, the children (and staff) were remarkably upbeat despite a good soaking!

NSPCC workshops

Year 5 & 6 pupils attended workshops run by volunteers from the NSPCC this week. They discussed the importance of speaking out against situations that made them feel uneasy, both in the real world and online.

Music evening

This will take place on Thursday 20th June in the school hall at 6:15pm. Please can we request that all children in the choir and performing with a musical instrument be in school by 6pm, many thanks. Tickets are not required for this event and all are most welcome to attend.

Church Quiz

As part of the Holy Trinity Open Church Week, there is a Town Trail for people to take part in. Around the town will be pictures relating to churches and people have to spot them; an entry form is attached to this letter .

Young carer's assemblies

These were held this week and gave children an understanding of what it is to be a young carer and the support that is available.

Cake sale

A cake sale will be held on Friday to raise money for school funds-all donations of cakes and biscuits can be delivered to the school office next week-thank you for your support.

Online safety

Attached to this newsletter is another information leaflet regarding on-line grooming, this is part of our ongoing wish to ensure that parents and carers are aware of potential issues that their children may encounter.
